Acts 20:22-32

[22]"And now, behold, bound by the Spirit, I am on my way to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there, [23]except that the Holy Spirit solemnly testifies to me in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions await me. [24]But I do not consider my life of any account as dear to myself, so that I may finish my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify solemnly of the gospel of the grace of God. [25]And now, behold, I know that all of you, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, will no longer see my face. [26]Therefore, I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all men. [27]For I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose of God. [28]Be on guard for yourselves and for all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood. [29]I know that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; [30]and from among your own selves men will arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. [31]Therefore be on the alert, remembering that night and day for a period of three years I did not cease to admonish each one with tears. [32]And now I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified."
