- 4) God really listens to Abraham, and He really listens to us. How should this truth shape our understanding and practice of prayer?
- 5) What place does intercession (praying for others like Abraham does for Sodom) have in your life? Who do you intercede for? How can we intercede for the people of our city?
- 6) Abraham interceded for Sodom. Jesus intercedes for us (see Heb 7:25 below). How are you thankful for Jesus' intercession for you?
- 7) Take a moment to praise God, to pray for the needs of your group and our church, and to ask for God's guidance in the coming week.

Memory Passage

"Therefore [Jesus] is able to save completely those who come to God through Him, because He always lives to intercede for them."
